Dear Chairman Genachowski:

I am writing on behalf of Community Bible Church in Pierre, SD, to request the FCC to protect wireless microphones from interference and ensure churches will be eligible for licenses.

CBC regularly uses 6 wireless microphones and 5 wireless in-ear monitors during each of its three weekly worship services. These devices are crucial to the worship experience of over 400 attendees. There is simply no practical way to wire this many devices on the church platform at once, and if attempted would create a safety hazard on stage. Furthermore, the restriction of movement in a tethered situation would hamper effective communication.

The bottom line is that interference free use of wireless devices is essential to our religious expression. If you have any questions regarding these comments, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,
